Knights Crown Fiesta Queen

Miss Jean Marie Spies was crowned Queen of the Rancho San Antonio Fiesta in Los Angeles Friday night by George W. Schneider, president of the Southern California chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

Queen Spies will reign over the annual barbecue and fiesta to be held at Rancho San Antonio "Boys' Town of the West" on Sunday, Sept. 15. The Rancho is located in San Fernando Valley, at Chatsworth, and is sponsored by the Southern California chapter of the Knights of Columbus.

Miss Spies as winner of the Queen contest will receive an all-expense-paid trip to the Mardi Gras in New Orleans next winter. On her trip Miss Spies will be received by the mayors of San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Chicago, and New Orleans. At New Orleans she will be escorted to one of the famous Mardi Gras balls by the governor of Louisiana.

Father Emil Kapaun council of the Knights of Columbus sponsored Miss Spies in the contest. Father Emil Kapaun council is located in Westchester.

'Bye, Bye, Incinerators, Hello, Furniture, is Word

With the approaching incinerator ban, the California Pre-casting Co., 1740 W. Artesia Blvd., has converted from a manufacturer of incinerators to a do-it-yourself market for the home, primarily in the furniture line.

The firm is planning a complete price range of ready-to-finish furniture, including first quality hardwood furniture. Special finishing kits also are available for the homeowner in a variety of finishes. The kit contains all material needed for a professional job.

Stain, sealer, and finish all are applied with a cloth. The firm guarantees that "it is impossible to go wrong."

According to the company officials, buyers can purchase one piece of furniture at a time and be assured that matching pieces will be available as needed.
